Regional Sales Manager Phil Pettine Retires After Almost 30 Years

Stephanie Wyjadka steps into Northeast Regional Sales Manager Role

YAKIMA, Wash., (October, 2024) – Phil Pettine, Kwik Lok’s Regional Sales Manager for Kwik Lok’s Northeast region is retiring. The company welcomes his successor, Stephanie (Steph) Wyjadka.

Pettine joined Kwik Lok in 1995 as the Northeast Regional Sales Manager, establishing a strong foundation in the Northeast market. In 2010, leveraging his adaptability to changing markets, he expanded his territory to include the mid-Atlantic region. Throughout his tenure, Pettine has consistently driven value to his customers across multiple regions, playing a crucial role in Kwik Lok’s expansion and growth.

“Phil’s dedication to Kwik Lok, creative mindset and commitment to customer success have been instrumental to Kwik Lok’s advancements over the last three decades. We are incredibly grateful for his contributions and wish him well in his retirement. As we celebrate his legacy, we welcome Steph Wyjadka. Her experience and enthusiasm will be instrumental in building on Phil’s success in the region.” shared Blair Chastain, Kwik Lok Chief Revenue Officer.

Wyjadka brings a wealth of sales experience to Kwik Lok, having excelled in previous roles as Business Development Representative at MSC Industrial Supply and Account Manager at Kimberly-Clark Professional. As Regional Sales Manager at Kwik Lok, she will focus on expanding Kwik Lok’s market share in the Northeast and build on the company’s strong reputation for innovation and customer service.

“I’m thrilled to join the Kwik Lok team and look forward to contributing to our continued success in the Northeast. This position offers a great opportunity to build on our strong customer relationships and continue delivering exceptional service,” shared Wyjadka.

Wyjadka holds a Bachelor of Arts in Communications from Shippensburg University of Pennsylvania and currently resides in Philadelphia, PA.
